

MORNING APPEAL.

Friday, August 3, 1888.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

MR. CASSIDY WILL PLEASE ANSWER.

Some weeks ago Mr. Cassidy, Democratic nominee for Congress, told the editor of the APPEAL that he was for protection. Willing to be fair to the gentleman the APPEAL published this statement as something in Cassidy's favor.

Since then we have seen the printed report in the Congressional Record of the vote on the Morrison Bill, and lo! the name of Cassidy of Nevada is among the list of Democrats who voted for the bill.

The bill reduced the tariff on everything 20 per cent., and placed some articles on the free list. It was a clean cut Free Trade bill, and after the vote Mr. Cassidy used some very strong language in expressing his disgust of those Democrats who "fell down and declined to vote for it."

This indicates to us that Mr. Cassidy is a Protectionist for this campaign only, and will be a Free Trader along with his party if he should succeed in being returned to Congress.

In fact, were he not a Free Trader in Congress he would be an off ox with his party, and of little influence.

These are the reasons why Cassidy should not be sent to Congress. Bartine, when elected, will be a strong Protectionist, and in accord with a majority of Congress. Under these favorable circumstances he will be in a splendid position to help his own State.

Its Right Name.

The London Times, having a letter from President Cleveland in its possession, after quoting passages from it, editorially says: "It would hardly be possible to put the Free Trade case more clearly or more strongly. The arguments which Cleveland uses are those which Cable used to employ forty-five years ago, and which any English Free Trader would employ now. They are purely Free Trade arguments, and as such we are glad to see Cleveland using them, though sorry for the popular infatuation which makes it dangerous to give them their right name."

A Chance for Carson.
The Committee who will have charge of the art gallery at the Mechanics' Fair, San Francisco, this year, have decided not to allow any paintings or statuary to be placed on exhibition that would bring a blush to the most delicate cheek. The APPEAL is glad to learn of this.

Last year the awful nude pictures in the art gallery kept hundreds of Carson people from visiting the Fair.

A large crowd of Carsonites will be certain to be there this year.

still they come.
John Day a sheep man came over the mountains yesterday by way of Genoa.

He said that he had always been a Democrat, but would vote for Harrison this year and knew six more sheep men who had been Democrats who had decided to vote for Harrison.

The New York Sun snorts with disgust because it is charged with having killed Hancock's chances by saying to him: "He is a good man and weighs two hundred and fifty pounds." It asks if it is going to kill Cleveland to say "He is a good man and weighs three hundred and twenty-five pounds." It don't wait, however, to get answers, it says it first.

The House has passed a bill creating a United States Land Court, and providing for the judicial investigation and settlement of private land claims in Colorado and the territories of Arizona and New Mexico.
